Customer Reviews

I got this as an Easter present for a friend. Yes, it may seem a little silly for an Easter present, but believe me when I say that it fit her personality perfectly. She absolutely loved it. We've looked over it together, and this is a great example of a fun adult coloring book. Sit back and relax while coloring the beautifully styled swear words throughout the book. We were really impressed with the variety of swears and cusses in the book - there were some that we hadn't seen or heard before, and that's saying something. The styling of the coloring pages is simple and fun, yet intricate. It's a great way to spend some time after a long, stressful day at work or with the kids. Just make sure that if you have this around, and you're not a fan of kids saying swear words, you keep it away from any little ones in your home who can read. While the styling doesn't necessarily make the words simple to read, it doesn't completely obstruct the words, either. The pages are thick, but I'm not sure I would necessarily use markers on this. That's a personal opinion, and many markers don't bleed through. Images are printed on one side only, which is really nice. I think this is a nice size coloring book. It's not too long, making it easy to get through, but not so short that you feel like there was nothing there. Overall, a great coloring book for adults!

I love the adult coloring books, and when I found out there was one out there that was of swear words, I was stoked! I am so happy to see such a light hearted book!!! I am a "sailor" and this is perfect for me. When you are having one of those days and you need some relief, this is a good stress reliever! Thank you!

This is the only swear word coloring book I have and I like it. I only have 2 complaints. 1) the paper is thinner than I like and 2) I wish there was more detail to color. Some of the words are obviously sayings from other countries but I don't mind that because you get the meaning. There aren't any inappropriate/offensive words or phrases as I've seen in a few other books. Overall I like it and would recommend it. The paper is suitable for colored pencils or crayons but I wouldn't recommend markers or watercolors unless you put something under it because it will bleed through.

Exactly what it says it is. Who would not want to color in these swear words. Some are not really swears, at least not by my standards, but well worth the price or the joy and laughs of coloring these pages in

This is only my second swearing coloring book and I love it. I do have a couple duplicates as my other book but I'm cool with it! I love that the pages are thick and only one sided so that it's easier to color.

I don't know what all of these words mean, and I am too afraid to google them. They are fun, the pictures are a little bizarre though, why am I coloring bunnies around "s*". Granted, bunnies s, but flowers don't, and there are lots of them too. Perhaps it is the juxtaposition of the swear words and the cutsie pics.

Gave as a birthday gift to my adult daughter and she loved it!

My one and only complaint is that there are duplicates from the first book that appear in this book. I love the fact that the printing is on one side so you are not limited by coloring options. The designs are beautiful and are relaxing to color. I really love that there is a variety of American swear and slang words as well as English swear and slang words.
