Synopsis

Eduard Josef G  belin (1913-2005) acquired an outstanding international reputation in the field of gemology with his scientific work and his remarkable collection of precious stones. His lifelong studies of inclusions in gemstones changed the science of gemology and his work laid the foundation for the microscopic identification of gemstones of all kinds. Written by members of his family, this book is published in celebration of the 100th Eduard Josef G  belin. The Eduard G  belin Story delves into his life story, to discover how his early years lay the foundations for his career as a gemologist, his research and his heritage.
