When building your "library" of music for any horn player this is a must. I have had several copies of the blue book over the past 30 years. It can be started as early as junior high, but it never gets old.

More than enough practice exercises to keep serious French horn players occupied. Did you put in your 3 hours of practice today :-)

There were about 10 to 15 pages that were printed upside down

Daughter needed this for school band. Very satisfied.
